GERMANY BOLTS TO 4-STROKE ADVANTAGE OVER USA AND CHINESE TAIPEI THROUGH ROUND 3

Helen Briem posted a 5-under-par 66 and Alexandra Forsterling shot a 1-under 70 as Germany bolted to a four-stroke lead over the USA and Chinese Taipei with a Round 3 score of 136 that is the second lowest in WWATC history.

"It's amazing. The girls were on fire today," said German captain Pia Gassner. "They played their hearts out. They played with gusto. They wanted it and held it together even when the last holes are so tough."

The Germans stand at 13 under par at 415 with the USA and Chinese Taipei at 419. Sweden, which held the 36-hole lead by two strokes over Germany and the USA, shot 143 and holds fourth place.

Briem, who was a member of the victorious European team at the 2021 Junior Solheim Cup, birdied five of her first seven holes.

"It is not often that you play with World No.1 (Rose Zhang) and No. 2 (Ingrid Lindblad) in one flight," Briem said. "I was a little nervous at the start because there were so any people. After my start I felt much calmer and went low."

Gassner felt that an unassuming attitude coming into the WWATCs played in her team's favor. "Sometimes when you don't have expectations that's the best thing," she said. "You don't put pressure on yourself. They just went out and played and played good golf. Now, we have to manage expectations for tomorrow.

Rose Zhang of the USA, who shot a 2 under 69, had a positive perspective of her team's position.

"We just have stay steady and have the mindset that we are trailing but we have skill set and the mental to push forward," said Zhang "We are better coming from behind and this is team play. I don't think anything is impossible. I have full faith in my teammates."

Spain moved up to fourth, followed by France (with a record-tying 134) and Japan tied for sixth, Canada is eighth and Australia, England and Scotland, which made the largest move of nine places, are tied for ninth.
